

Contribution rules of the sports association Betriebssportgemeinschaft DESY Hamburg e.V.

(hereinafter called „BSG DESY“)

1. Principle

These contribution rules regulate the obligation for payment of the members and the size of contributions and fees.

These contribution rules come into force with the resolution of the General Assembly of 14 March 2023.

The contribution rules can only be modified by a resolution of the General Assembly.

2. Contributions and fees

The membership fee consists of a basic contribution and additional fees.

2.1. Basic contribution

The amount of the basic contribution is regulated by the type of membership.

Category	Type of membership	Annual contr.
1	full member	12,00 €
2	passive member	8,00 €
3	supporting member	24,00 €
4	honorary member	free of charge
5	minor citizen	free of charge
6	officials	12,00 €
7	trial members *	free of charge

* According to the statutes a trial membership is limited to 4 (four) weeks.

The BSG DESY basic contribution comprises the basic and the membership fee as well as the contribution for the sports insurance which has to be paid to the Betriebssportverband Hamburg e.V., our umbrella association.

The basic contribution is due for the year after admission by BSG DESY for the first time.

2.2. Section fees

All sections may raise additional fees that are collected by the individual section manager(s) and which are administrated by the respective section management.

2.3. Admission fee

A non-recurring fee of € 12,00 is due immediately upon admission to the association.

No basic contribution is due for the calendar year of admission to BSG DESY.

2.4. Fees for player passports

Members who need a player's passport for their participation in competitions pay an extra annual fee of €13.20.

Any price change will be fully passed on to the passport holders of BSG DESY.

Fees for this player's pass are due immediately upon its application.

3. Payment of contributions and fees

Payment of all contributions and fees are due until 31 January of each calendar year.

The payable amount is determined by the type of membership at the due date.

All contributions and fees will be collected by the treasurer via SEPA direct debit mandate through the association's bank account.

Alternatively, contributions and fees may be collected by the section manager(s) and transferred to the association's bank account.